The Man for Congress-Opinion of a well wisher of New Mexico.

EDITOR LAS VEGAS GARETTE: Being a well wisher of New Mexico. though not a resident or a politician, I would say a word on the approaching election for Delegate to Congress. New Mexico is in her influey, just merging into childhood, and like a child what her people tarst need to day is development, not government; of the latter, this Territory has surely been blessed with a sufficiency.

As to the politics of the two gentlemen who are candidates, to my much it is immaterial which is elected. For the reason that men in public life, generally, act out the same course as they have done in their private affairs. It is on this ground that I would arge the voters of New Mexico to elect that honorable and highminded gentleman, Trinidai Romero. Those who desire the affairs of the Territory entrusted to a straight faward business man, now have an opportunity to elect such a man. to represent the Territory. And while I would not say an evil word against Mr. Valdez. I would ask the voters who per sonally know both gentlemen, if you had to choose one of these candidates with whom to entrust your private business, which candidate would you select. Would you not cather trust the man who has guided belonged chiefly to the younger and less business affairs with the most dis seeing the criminals preparing for resistation belonged chiefly to the younger and less business matters despite his tractured public business.

I know of but one reason why men do not thus act and that is on account of party s irit, I would urge upon the voters to lay aside their party spirit and elect that successful business gentleman, Trinidad personally know both candidates, which can do most for New Mexico, judging by what the two gentlemen have respectively done in the past. We must conclude that Mr. Romero is capable of accomplishing could rely upon Mr. Romero, as all men who have transactions with him in private life, with the most implicit confidence,

While I have no personal interest in the election, I sincerely hope that for the good of the Territory her people may act wisely, and entrust their public affairs in the hands of so safe a man as the Hon Trinidad
